

University Mathematics in Perspective
29th Residential Course for Sixth Form Students
Wednesday 24 – Friday 26 June 2015

Fact Sheet

This three-day residential course for sixth form students, provides an introduction to student life and mathematics at the University of Leeds. We offer you a sneak preview of university life plus an insight into how mathematics develops at degree level. Our University tutors will extend and enrich your existing study of mathematics at A-level (or equivalent) through a series of talks.

We will give you an invaluable insight into the structure of mathematics degrees, the courses, admissions procedure and how to make the most of your application to university.

This is your chance to:

- Listen to world class mathematicians talk about the subjects they know best
- Get advice on the careers available with a mathematics degree
- Stay in student accommodation
- Get to know the campus, library and other facilities

General conference information

The conference will start at 1.30pm on Wednesday with registration from 12.30pm (timings to be confirmed).

Location of the conference

The conference will take place at Devonshire Hall, which is a hall of residence about a mile north of the University campus. Part of the conference will involve a visit to the main campus.

Course fees

The course fee is £120. This includes accommodation on Wednesday and Thursday nights, and all meals and refreshments.

Travel arrangements and expenses will be the responsibility of the individual student.

How to apply

Your school/college Maths Department may have been sent some details, but if not, you can download the application form from our website (www.maths.leeds.ac.uk/sixthform). You should get permission from your school/college before you attend.

To apply for a place on the conference, please complete and return the application form, along with payment of the course fee. Please pay by cheque made payable to "The University of Leeds".

Applicants can apply independently or as a group through their school/college, however a maximum of 5 students from each school/college will be allowed.

Applicants should apply as soon as possible, but no later than 24 April 2015. Entry on to the conference is strictly on a first come, first served basis.

If the conference becomes full, further applicants will be placed on a waiting list.
